U.S. Green Berets train partner forces, Maghaweir al-Thowra

U.S. Green Berets train partner force soldiers of the Maghaweir al-Thowra (MaT) at al-Tanf Garrison, Syria, March 3, 2020.

The Green Berets showed our partner forces how to quickly fix a firing malfunction on an assault rifle, how to fire while using various forms of cover, the clearing procedures on a weapon and general marksmanship techniques.

Coalition Forces and the MaT remain united in a long-term effort to defeat ISIS and counter violent extremist organizations in southern Syria.

Task Group Taji awards U.S. Army artillery officer with the Australian Bronze Commendation

The Australian and New Zealand Task Group Taji, awarded a U.S. Army artillery officer with the Australian bronze commendation on Feb. 15, 2020, for his role in protecting Coalition forces at Camp Taji.

U.S. Army 2nd Lt. William B. Thompson served dual roles at Camp Taji, Iraq, as the Base Defense Operations Center Officer in Charge and as the aerial response force fire support officer.

“As soon as I entered theater I became responsible for providing the Camp Taji Base Commander with intelligence to safeguard the base,” Thompson said.

“Task Group Taji opened my eyes to the strategic challenges a coalition environment can have. It was a great place to enable operations to defeat Daesh,” he added.
